INDEX TO VOL. LXXXIII

The titles of articles are printed in italics

AER

AEROPLANE, The German Creed and the, 905–912
Alien, The Law and the, 966–979
Allies' Assurance of Victory, 1077–1087
Alsace-Lorraine and the Principle of Nationality: Alsatian View, 229–247
Americans, English and: End of a Long Misunderstanding, 287–300
Americans, Hail! 1–5
Amery (Lieut.-Col. C. S.), Irish Demand for Fiscal Autonomy, 1157–67
Anglo-American relations and the Washington Embassy, 855–865
Anglo-German peace propaganda, 685–697
Anglo-Indian view of British ideals in India, 263–274
Archbishops' Committee's Report on Church and State, 340–356
Aston (Major-General Sir George), 'Jargon' in the Great War, 603–610; Violence and Cunning, 1125–1136
Austria, Shall England save her, 1101–15
Automatic Writing: its Uses and its Verification, 779–789

BACONIAN theory concerning Shakespeare's plays, 824–841
Baillie-Grohman (W. A.), A Paradise for Canadian and American Soldiers, 762–778
Balance, In the, 6–25
Balfour-Browne (J. H.), The Past and Future of Railways, 619–636
Barker (J. Ellis), The World's Debt to Italy and how to pay it, 301–322; Coal, Iron—and the Domination of the World, 698–714; Britain's True Wealth and Unimportance of the War Debt, 926–947
Barrington (Viscountess), Revival of Village Social Life, 790–809

BRO

Barry (Canon William), Teuton against Roman, 111–124; False and True Idealism in the War, 913–925; Shall England save Austria? 1101–1115
Bates (Jean Victor), Ulster and the Irish Tangle: 'The Keepers of the Door,' 1092–1100
Belgium's martyrdom and verses of Empedocles, 980–986
Bevan (Edwyn), C. F. Keary's 'Pursuit of Reason,' 1276–1280
Bismarck, Prince, personality as revealed by Sabouroff memoirs, 60–75
Bolshevists and disintegration of Russia, 453–470, 1062–1076
Boulger (Demetrius C.), Dutch-German Railways and their Significance, 1116–24
Brain anatomy and study of the mind, 1007–1013
Brereton (Cloudesley), Defence of Modern Humanities, 810–823
Brest-Litovsk, Bucharest, and German cunning, 655–668, 1225–1136
Britain's True Wealth and Unimportance of the War Debt, 926–947
British Columbia and Kootenay Valley home for returned soldiers, 762–778
British Constitution, The, and the Conduct of War, 26–46
British Democracy, The Threatened Suicide of, 487–498
British Embassy at Washington, 855–865
British naval raids on Zeebrugge and Ostend, 1198–1209
British Policy in Russia, 453–470
British rule in India, its ideals, 263–286
British War Aims in 1814 and To-day, 499–520
Brooks (Sydney), British Embassy at Washington, 855–865; The King and the War, 893–904; The Paradox of the Premier, 1319–1326

CAM

CAMBRIDGE, Religion and Higher Education at, 1225–1235
Cameroons, The: Object Lesson in German Colonial Government, 1041–1049
Canada and the War, French Canadians, 425–436
Canadian and American returned soldiers and Kootenay Valley, 762–778
Capital and General Progress, 567–581
Capital and the Cost of War, 197–209
Capital of Labour, The: Suggestion for the Engineering Trades, 437–442
Capitalists and wage-earners, Socialist fallacies, 248–262
Champneys (Sir Francis), The Fight against Venereal Infection, 611–618; comments upon, 184–190
Child Life, The Enemies of, 76–98
Christ and Odin, German religion and lust for war, 111–124
Church, An Appeal to the: Fact versus Dogma, 99–110
Church of England, The, and State Control, 340–356
Church's Self-Government, The, 521–539
Clarke (Rev. A. H. T.), Allies' Assurance of Victory, 1077–1087
Classical education and modern requirements, 810–823
Clausewitz and German war policy, 1125–1136
Coal, Iron—and the Domination of the World, 698–714
Colles (W. Morris), German Octopus, 125–137; German Confidence Trick, 592–602
Commander-in-Chief and responsibility in War control, 26–46
Commercialisation of Labour, 443–452
Confidence Trick, The German, 592–602
Conscientious Objector, The, 357–373
Conscription of capital, 197–209
'Conscription of Wealth,' The, 248–262
Constitutional government as fighting machine, 26–46
Cook (Sir Theodore), English and Americans: End of a Long Misunderstanding, 287–300
Co-Partnership versus Labour Unrest, 948–965
Country villages and social life, 790–809
Cox (Harold), Under-taxed Ireland, 1144–1156
Cox (Staff-Paymaster Cyril), The Cameroons: Object Lesson in German Colonial Government, 1041–1049; Raids on Zeebrugge and Ostend, 1198–1209
Cunningham (W.), Religion and Higher Education at Cambridge, 1225–1235

FOR

DAWSON (William Harbutt), How Germany makes Peace, 655–668
Dead, Communicating with the, 99–110, 779–789
Death, Pestilence, and Famine, Apocalyptic vision, 1236–1248
Delune (Louis), Charles Gounod, 1185–1197
Democracy as a catch-phrase in war aims, 1137–1143
Democracy, British, Threatened Suicide of, 487–498
Democracy, Safe from? 987–995
Dewar (George A. B.), Great German Offensive and Strategy of the Allies, 888–892; 'War Aims'—True and Spurious, 1137–1143
Dicey (Prof. A. V.), The Conscientious Objector, 357–373
Dillon (Dr. E. J.), Plight of Spain, 386–402
Disestablished Church of England, Scheme of Constitution for, 521–539
Dominions, The, Why should they pay a Double War Tax? 1303–1318
Donkin (Sir Bryan), Fight against Venereal Infection, 184–190; reply to, 611–618
Dutch-German Railways and their Significance, 1116–1124

ELECTORAL reform and Women's suffrage, 47–59
Elementary School Child's Mother, 553–566
Emmet (Rev. Cyril W.), Church of England and State Control, 340–356
Enemies of Child Life, 76–98
Engineering Trades, A Suggestion for a Capital of Labour, 437–452
Erasmus, Sir Thomas More, Juan Vives, and Ferdinand Columbus, 540–552

FACT versus Dogma: Appeal to the Church, 99–110
False and True Idealism in the War, 913–925
Federalism, Problem of, 1291–1302
Fight against Venereal Infection, 184–190; reply to, 611–618
Financial Outlook, Germany's, 374–385
Fiscal Autonomy, Irish Demand for, 1157–1167
Fisher (Joseph R.), 'Unreasonableness' of Ulster, 1088–1091
Flanders and its scholars, in Sir Thomas More's time, 540–552
Flying machines and future of warfare, 905–912
Food Money, 996–1006
Food Problem, How to solve the, 734–743
Forth and Clyde Ship-Canal—and Housing, 1014–1028

FRA

Fraser (Sir Andrew), The Future of India: Problem before us, 275–286
'Freedom of the Seas,' 210–228
French-Canadians, 425–436
French claims to Alsace-Lorraine, 229–247
Frenchwomen, What they are Doing, 1168–1184
Future of India, 263–274

GATTIE (Alfred Warwick), How to solve Food Problem, 734–743
George (Mr. Lloyd), how to strengthen his hands to victory, 1319–1326
George the Fifth, King of England, his character and activities, 893–904
German Colonial Government: The Cameroons, 1041–1049
German colonies and world-wide schemes, 669–684
German Confidence Trick, 592–602
German control of Dutch railways, 1116–24
German Creed and Aeroplane, 905–914
German Octopus, 125–137
German Offensive, The Great, and Strategy of the Allies, 888–892
German relations with Russia, policy of Bismarck, 76–98
German treatment of Poles, 1210–24
Germanisation of Alsace, 229–247
Germanism against Christianity in World-War, 111–124
Germany makes Peace, How, 655–668
Germany's Financial Outlook, 374–385
Germany's Friends in England: the Weapon of Peace, 685–697
Gladstone (Mr.), Mr. Parnell, and Lord Morley's Recollections, 170–183
God as Supreme Power and 'Bridgewater Treatises,' 1225–1235
Gokhale (G. K.), his proposals for Indian government, 284–285
Gounod (Charles), 1185–1197
Government Relations with the Press: Indian Precedent, 403–411
Grand Alliance of 1814, its war aims, and ours to-day, 499–520
Greater Italy, another Renaissance, 301–322
Grenfell (Julian) and the making of India, 269–274
Grotius and International Law, 866–887
Guyot (Yves) Industrial Peace: Commercialisation of Labour, 443–452

HAIGH (Mrs.), Constructive Policy for India, 1249–1263
Hamilton (Rev. Dr. Harold), The French Canadians, 425–436
Harman (E. G.), The 'Shakespeare Problem,' 824–841
Helmer (Paul), Alsace-Lorraine and the Principle of Nationality, 229–247

JER

Hewlett (M.), C. F. Keary's Poems, 1269–1271
Hill (G. F.), C. F. Keary and the British Museum, 1280–1281
Hohenlohe (Prince) and German terms of peace, 655–668
Home Rule for Ireland and its difficulties, 1092–1100; Mr. Parnell and Mr. Gladstone, 170–183; control of customs and tariffs, 1157–1167
Hospital Orderly, Notebook of a: Incongruous Days, 412–422; 'However . . .' 1050–1061
How Germany makes Peace, 655–668
Humanities, Defence of the Modern, 810–823

IBANEZ (V. Blasco), his romance of the War, 1236–1248
Idealism in the War, False and True, 913–925
In the Balance, 6–25
Income-tax, Double, on Colonial incomes, 1303–1318
Incongruous Days: from Notebook of a War-Hospital Orderly, 412–422
India and democratic cyclone, 987–995
India, Constructive Policy for, 1249–63
India, Our Aim in: an Anglo-Indian View, 263–274
India, The Future of: Problem before us, 275–286
Indian Government relations with the Press, 403–411
Industrial co-partnership, conditions for success, 948–965
Industrial Peace, Ways to, 437–452
Infant mortality and maternal malnutrition, 99–110
Inter-Allied propaganda to thwart German intrigues, 126–137
International law and 'freedom of the seas,' 210–228; and Hugo Grotius, 866–887
Ireland, Under-taxed, 1144–1156
Irish Agricultural Organisation Society, an example for India, 1251–1263
Irish Demand for Fiscal Autonomy, 1157–1167
Irish Tangle: 'Unreasonableness' of Ulster, 1088–1091
Italy, Shakespeare and, 138–153
Italy, The World's Debt to, and how to pay it, 301–322

'JARGON' in the Great War, 603–610
Jennings (H. J.), Germany's Financial Outlook, 374–385
Jerusalem Delivered: Commemoration and Warning, 191–196

KAISER Wilhelm and King George the Fifth contrasted, 893–904
Kaiserism the foe of liberty, 913–925
Keary (C. F.), Tributes to the Memory of, 1264–1283
'Keepers of the Door' : Ulster and the Irish Tangle, 1092–1100
Ker (W. P.), C. F. Keary's 'Vikings in Western Christendom,' 1274–76
King, The, and the War, 893–904
Kozicki (Stanislas), The Poles under Prussian Rule, 1210–1224
Kootenay Valley, paradise for Canadian and American soldiers, 762–778

LABOUR, Commercialisation of, 443–452
Labour Report on Reconstruction, and Socialist fallacies, 471–486
Labour, The Capital of : Suggestion for Engineering Trades, 437–442
Labour Unrest, Co-Partnership versus, 948–965
Law and the Alien, 966–979
Law of Nations, Psychology of the 866–887; Safety of the State, 1029–1040
Law Reform, A Plea for, 842–854
Legislative control of railways, 619–636
Let Women Say! An Appeal to the House of Lords, 47–59
Lethbridge (Sir Roper), Government Relations with the Press : an Indian Precedent, 403–411
Leverhulme (Lord) on Labour and Capital, 567–581
Leyland (John), The 'Freedom of the Seas,' 210–228
Liberal Allies, Parnell and, 170–183
'Life and Liberty Movement' and Church control, 340–356
Lilly (W. S.), Plea for Law Reform, 824–841
Literature and Politics, 154–169
Lodge (Sir Oliver), Fact versus Dogma : an Appeal to the Church, 99–110
London War-Hospital Orderly's Note-book, 1050–1061
Lords, House of, An Appeal to the : Let Women Say! 47–59
Lorraine and Alsace under German rule, 229–247
Low (Sidney), In Memoriam : C. F. Keary, 1281–1283
Lucas (E. V.), C. F. Keary : Indelible Impression, 1267–1269
Lying Rumours, On Fighting against, 1284–1290

MAKGILL (Sir George), The Weapon of Peace : Germany's Friends in England, 685–697; The Law and the Alien, 966–979
Mallock (W. H.), Capital and the Cost of War, 197–209; Capital and General Progress, 567–581
Marriott (J. A. R.), 'Conscription of Wealth,' 248–262; Welt-Politik : the New Orientation of History, 669–684; The Problem of Federalism, 1291–1303
Mather (Sir William), Ways to Industrial Peace : the Capital of Labour : a Suggestion for the Engineering Trades, 437–442
Maud (Miss C. E.), What Frenchwomen are Doing, 1168–1184
Mental disturbance and psycho-pathology, 1007–1013
Modern side at Public Schools, 810–823
Money, Depreciation of, automatic reduction of War Debt, 926–947
Monteith (Mary E.), Automatic Writing : Uses and Verification, 779–789
More (Sir Thomas), A Friend of, 540–552
Morgan (Capt. J. H.), Literature and Politics, 154–169
Morris (Frank), Food Money, 996–1006
Mothers and infants, State care and protection for, 76–78
Mothers of elementary school children, 553–566
Morley (Lord), literary work and political recollections, 154–183
Muir (Corporal Ward), Incongruous Days, 412–424; 'However . . .' from Notebook of London War-Hospital Orderly, 1050–1061
Mysticalism in Tennyson's poems, 582–589

NAPOLEONIC Wars and England's unreadiness, 1077–1087
Nationality, Principle of, Alsace-Lorraine and, 229–247
Naturalisation, Our national policy of, 966–979
Newsholme (Sir Arthur), Enemies of Child Life, 76–98
Newspapers and the Government, the Press of India, 403–411
Nicoll (Capt. Maurice), Need for Psycho-Pathological Hospitals, 1007–1013
Nottingham Labour Conference and brain-work, 575–580

O'BRIEN (William), Parnell and his Liberal Allies, 170–183
Occultism in Tennyson's Poetry, 582–591
Octopus, German, 125–137
Odin, 'old German God,' against Christendom, 111–124
Omond (G. W. T.), British War Aims in 1814 and To-day, 499–520

PAL

PALESTINE campaign and future of Jerusalem, 191–196
Paradise for Canadian and American Soldiers, 762–778
Paradox of the Premier, The, 1319–26
Parnell and his Liberal Allies, 170–183
Party Government, Abolition of, 744–761
Party government, defects of, in control of war, 26–46
Past and Future of Railways, 619–636
'Peace by negotiation' and treachery of our Bolsheviks, 487–498
Peace plots 'made in Germany,' 592–602; Pacifist propaganda, 685–697
Peacemaker, Confessions of a, 637–654
Peace-rationing, after-war food money, 996–1006
Pessimists and lying rumours about the war, 1284–1290
Piggott (Sir Francis), Safety of the State: Study of Psychology of Law of Nations, 866–887, 1029–1040
Plight of Spain, 386–402
Poles under Prussian Rule, 1210–24
Politics, Literature and, 154–169
Pollock (Walter Herries), C. F. Keary, 1264–1266
Positive Law as means for realisation of Right, 842–854
Press, Government Relations with: Indian Precedent, 403–411
Priestley (Neville), Co-Partnership versus Labour Unrest, 948–965
Prize-Courts and rights of neutrals, 866–887
Problem of Federalism, 1291–1302
Progress, Capital and General, 567–581
Prophylaxis and early treatment in venereal disease, 611–618
Prussian military oligarchy and peace plots, 637–654
Psychical research and Christian supernaturalism, 99–110
Psycho-Pathological Hospitals, Need for, 1007–1013
Public Schools, Classical and Modern sides, 810–823

QUEBEC and French Canadians, 425–436

RAILWAYS, Past and Future of, 619–636
Ramsay (Sir William Mitchell), Confessions of a Peacemaker, 637–654
Reading (Lord) as British Ambassador to Washington, 855–865
Red Cross and other war work of Frenchwomen, 1168–1184
Rees (Sir J. D.), Safe from Democracy? 987–995
Referendum on woman suffrage for Parliamentary elections, 47–59

SUL

Religion and Higher Education at Cambridge, 1225–1235
Rice (Sir Cecil Spring), late British Ambassador to Washington, 855–865
Roman, Teuton against, 111–124
Russia and Rumania, victims of German cunning, 1125–1136
Russia, British Policy in, 453–470
Russian Débâcle and the East, 1062–1076
Russian Revolution in Retrospect and Forecast, 715–733
Russo-German Relations and Sabouroff Memoirs, 60–75

SABOUROFF Memoirs, Russo-German Relations and, 60–75
Safe from Democracy? 987–995
Safety of the State: Psychology of Law of Nations, 866–887, 1029–1040
Scottish Ship Canal between Forth and Clyde, 1014–1028
Seas, Freedom of the, 210–228
Sellers (Edith), Elementary School Child's Mother, 553–566; On Lying Rumours, 1284–1290
Shadwell (Dr. Arthur), In the Balance, 6–25
Shakespeare Problem, 824–841
Shakspeare and Italy, 138–153, 323–339
Shall England save Austria? 1101–15
Sharpe (Rev. Father), Shoes of Empedocles, 980–986
Shell-shock and psycho-pathological hospitals, 1007–1013
Shoes of Empedocles, 980–986
Siberian Mission to save Russia, 453–470
Sichel (Walter), Jerusalem Delivered: Commemoration and Warning, 191–196; The Three Knights of the Apocalypse, 1236–1248
Simpson (Prof. J. Y.), Russo-German Relations and Sabouroff Memoirs, 60–75; Russian Revolution in Retrospect and Forecast, 715–733
Sinnett (A. P.), Occultism in Tennyson's Poetry, 582–591
Slavery under German rule in Cameroons, 1041–1049
Socialism, Peril of, 471–486
Socialist schemes for conscripting capital, 248–262
Spain, Plight of, 386–402
State Control, Church of England and, 340–356
Stone (Brig.-Gen. F. G.), Abolition of Party Government, 744–761
Strategy of Allies, Great German Offensive and, 888–892
Suicide of British Democracy, Threatened, 487–498
Sullivan (Sir Edward), Shakspeare and Italy, 138–153, 323–339

SUP

Supreme Civil Council to counteract German propaganda, 125–137
Swinton (Capt. G. S. C.), Forth and Clyde Ship Canal—and Housing, 1014–1028
Sydenham of Combe (Lord), Peril of Socialism, 471–486

TAXATION, Ireland's unequal contribution, 1144–1156
Tennyson's Poetry, Occultism in, 582–591
Teuton against Roman, 111–124
Three Knights of the Apocalypse, 1236–1248
Town life and infant mortality, 99–110
Tribunals and proper treatment of conscientious objectors, 357–373

ULSTER and Irish Tangle, 1088–1100
Underground Germanism and its work in Italy and Russia, 125–137
Under-taxed Ireland, 1144–1156
Unmeaningness as passport to success, 603–610
Urquhart (Leslie), British Policy in Russia, 453–470

VAILE (Elisabeth), see Monteith (Mary E.)
Venereal Infection, Fight against, 184–190; reply to, 611–618
Venezuelan question, President Cleveland, and Monroe doctrine, 287–300
Venice, Italy, and Shakespeare, 138–153
Victory, Allies' Assurance of: Historical Parallel, 1077–1087
Village Social Life, Revival of, 790–809
Violence and Cunning: Lesson of Brest and Bucharest, 1125–1136
Vives (Juan Luis), friend of Erasmus and of Sir Thomas More, 540–552

WADE (Sir C. G.), Why should the Dominions pay a Double War Tax? 1303–1318
War Aims, British, in 1814 and To-day, 499–520
'War Aims'—True and Spurious, 1137–1143
War, American help in the, 1–5
War and peace, Socialism and Prussianism, 6–25
War, Conduct of, British Constitution and the, 26–46

WAR

War, Cost of, Capital and, 197–209
War Debt, Unimportance of, Britain's True Wealth, 926–947
War-Hospital Orderly's Notebook, 412–424, 1050–1061
War, Italy's part in the, 301–322
War, 'Jargon' in the Great, 603–610
War Loan, Seventh German, and financial jugglery, 374–385
War strategy of Germans and Allies, 888–892
War, The King and the, 893–904
War, The, loyalty of India, 275–286
Ward (Mrs. Humphry), Let Women Say! Appeal to House of Lords, 47–59
Washington, British Embassy at, 855–865
Watson (Prof. Foster), Friend of Sir Thomas More, 540–552
Watson (Sir William), Americans, Hail! 1–5
Weapon of Peace, Germany's Friends in England, 685–697
Welt-Politik: New Orientation of History, 669–684
Whibley (Charles), C. F. Keary, his 'Wanderer' and Novels, 1272–74
Wilkinson (Spenser), British Constitution and Conduct of War, 26–46
Wilson (President), President Cleveland, and Anglo-American relations, 287–300
Woman suffrage and electoral reform, 47–59
World-conquest and German ruthlessness, 905–912
World domination, dependence on coal and iron, 698–714
World-History, New epoch in, 669–684
World's Debt to Italy, and how to pay it, 301–322
World-War and starvation of Spanish people, 386–402
Wyatt (Harold F.), Threatened Suicide of British Democracy, 487–498; German Creed and the Aeroplane, 905–912

YATE (Lieut.-Col. A. C.), Russian Débâcle and the East, 1062–1076
Younghusband (Sir Francis), Our Aim in India: Anglo-Indian View, 263–274

ZANZIBAR (Bishop of), Church's Self-Government, 521–539
Zeebrugge and Ostend, Raids on, 1198–1209

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE, BALLANTYNE & CO. LTD.
LONDON, COLCHESTER AND ETON, ENGLAND